

Struthers Family

Index

Section 1: Struthers Family Tree

- Names and identification number of each descendant of John Struthers [18] and Janet Fleming Struthers [19] to the 4th generation. Each new generation is indented. It should be noted that the tree is not complete. It contains only those members for which there is a photo or other documentation. The Struthers family emigrated to Upper Canada in the early half of the 19th century
- This family tree begins with John Struthers and Janet Fleming. According to family tradition, their second child was called John. It may be that John had more than one older sibling and that the identification numbers in the family tree below do not reflect the birth order in the initial families. However, for the purposes of this chart John Struthers (18) and Janet Fleming (19) are believed to have named their second child John (18-19b.). John married Margaret Henderson (18-19b.Sp.) whose first child was also named John (18-19ba.) He married Jane Roxborough (18-19ba.Sp.). Their descendants starting in the third generation are listed below.

Note on Organization of the Family Tree:

1. Each person has been designated a number which correlates to their position on the family tree. The first two identified members of the family are each given a number. Each consecutive child is then given a letter to the end of that number. For example, the first child is 1-2a, the second child is 1-2b, and so on. The numbering system continues with each new generation being given an additional letter signifying their position within the tree.
2. Each spouse of a direct descendant is designated with Sp. for Spouse. For example, if they are married to the third child in the family tree, they would be numbered as, "1-2c.Sp." If they have more than one spouse, it will be denoted by a number after the Sp. "1-2c.Sp.2."

If an individual in this family tree is connected to another family associated with the project, that person's identification number will change in their second tree.

Section 2: Family photographs and archival documents

- Includes photographs and source documents related to each family member.

Note: This album was developed largely by Hildred Struthers White, the granddaughter of George Struthers. She identified many of the photos using familiar and family names. It is important to note that the same names were used across families and between generations so it is possible that the person who identified Hildred's collection may have made errors in the identifying of some of the family members within the photos.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Miss Jane E. Struthers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Struthers, of the 16th con. of Eima. She was in her 26th year, and her early death is a sad shock on the community. She was a member of the Monkton Presbyterian church, and was for many years a member of the choir. She was a general favorite with all who had the pleasure of making her acquaintance. Two brothers, John and Robert, and one sister, Mrs. John Francis, jr., are the remaining members of the family. The sorrowing friends have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Miss Me — But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
 And the sun has set for me
 I want no rites in a gloom filled room
 Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little — but not too long
 And not with your head bowed low
 Remember the love that we once shared
 Miss me — but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
 And each must go alone
 It's all a part of the Master's Plan
 A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
 Go to the friends we know
 And bury your sorrow's in doing good deeds
 Miss me — but let me go.

Dear Murray:

Thanks for your birthday present, it will come in handy when I get the bill for my watch. I received, counting yours, $1.50 in cash and three pairs of socks, which should come in mighty handy, these cold days.

Have you had a chance to see your bell yet? I hope it is the kind you want. I had it bought for 3 weeks before Christmas, because they are hard to get here.

How is your sister "Jean"? I suppose you have heard about our happy event. "That is my Aunts". I am running short on words so. —!

Your cousin

Bruce.

and Mrs. Helen Ord, of 244 Front St., Stratford.

After their children had completed public school the family moved to Stratford. Mr. Struthers rented a farm near Stratford and farmed it until he retired. The couple moved to St. Marys where they remained until Mr. Struthers passed away.

Mrs. Struthers was an active member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church in Stratford. She once sold more than half the tickets for a concert at the church.

Mrs. Struthers has been a resident at Spruce Lodge for the past 10 years.

She used to enjoy knitting, crocheting and quilting but in recent years has been content to visit with her family and friends. She looks forward to her weekly letters from a cousin in London who visits Mrs. Struthers' only surviving sister, Annie Pierson, a resident of the Dearness Home in London.

Dear Hildred + Archie -

Just a note to let you know how much I appreciated they were lovely.

It has been hard for me to finally realize what has taken place. it was so sudden.

as you know Billie hasn't been feeling well for sometime.

She asked me to make her a cup of tea for her around 6:0'clock. which I did, I asked her what she wanted to eat, and she said - I'll decide later we watched the news on T.V and she turned the radio on to listen to the ball game.

She got up to go to kitchen to wash her cup. I heard the water running for a minute, she shut it off. I called to her to see if she was O.K. no answer

I went in and she had taken off her glasses. put them on the sink and slid down on the carpet.

I called the ambulance which came in a few minutes over ph0440(1) Lloyd Struthers 18-19babdf.

they gave her C.P.R. and oxygen and took her to the hospital where they tried everything.

The doctor told me it was a massive heart ~~set~~ attack.

I plan to come up to see you and Archie in the near future.

My good friend, the
dr. and his wife have been a gad send. they are going to Europe at the end of June for 5 week. and I'm looking after their house. he doesn't trust any one else.

Love Lloyd.

Dear Jan. It has been from you, and I am happy
 you enjoyed the birthday &
 certainly did not go overboard.

I sent for a lady that has a baby ship she calls it "The Shell Haven". I make boots a dozen pair at a time, and other little thing I really enjoy it.

I bought the blanket in Buffalo one day, and I can't find anything suitable for a boy.

I was talking to Mother last night she said it took two hours to write a letter and there was nothing in it you cannot talk about your grandchildren so there isn't much to write.

I hope you will be home in October. I don't know if the purchase

Re: Estate of Lloyd Stuart Struthers

Dear Mrs. White:

This firm is acting as solicitors for Mrs. Jean Williams in connection with the administration of the Estate of your late brother, Lloyd Stuart Struthers.

We are enclosing for your information photostatic copies of the late Mr. Struthers' Will and the preliminary Statement of Assets which was prepared for the Estate as at July 23, 1988. Clause 3(e) of the Will provides for the residue of the estate to be paid to you and your brother, Morris Struthers, in equal shares.

Mrs. Williams has gathered into an Estate bank account the proceeds of the various assets, paid the outstanding accounts owing by the Estate, with the exception of the final income tax, and set aside in guaranteed investment certificates the $1,000.00 bequests provided for each of Steven and Christopher Whitney.

There are Estate funds available for distribution at this time and therefore, we are also enclosing an Estate cheque made payable to you in the amount of $15,000.00, representing an interim distribution on account of your one half share of residue. A similar cheque has been forwarded to your brother.
