

Parades, Reunions AND OTHER Special Events

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4501 Dressed up for Mitchell's Victoria Day celebrations (May 24) in 1912. From left: Wilfrid C. (Dick) Thorne, Harry (3) Campbell, Harry (Feather) McManus, Ed (Silver) Sherwood and Jake Levy.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4502 Costumed for some kind of celebration in Mitchell in the early 1900s, perhaps a Victoria Day gathering, from the (3) left: Will Stoneman, Dick Harris, ????, William Shields, ??? Macdonald, Monk Lashbrook, Lynd Schafer, Warren Campbell, ??? Shields in the carriage, Jack Crawford, Bill Timms, youngster ??? Hudson, Tommy Dodds, and Fred McClocklin. The photo was taken behind a building on the fairgrounds in Keterson Park. The building was destroyed by fire on Sept. 27, 1916.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4503 The east end of the north side of Mitchell's main business block, decorated for the town's old boys reunion in the summer of 1923. From the left: the Couch and Schneider general store, the Thorne shoe store, the corn exchange, Newton Boyd's funeral and furniture business, Fred C. Hord's decorating and stationery store, and the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4504 The east end of the south side of Mitchell's main business block, decorated for the town's old boys reunion in the summer of 1923. From the left: a restaurant and candy store, the T. S. Ford and Co. department store, and a retail space that for many years was a drugstore.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4505 The organizing committee for the Mitchell old boys reunion in the summer of 1923. Standing, from left: Albert John Blowes, accommodations; E. E. Lewthwaite, music; W. R. Cole, sports; R. Davidson, races; William Ryan, publicity; Thomas Symons Ford, vice-president; and W. J. Halfnight, amusements. Sitting, from left: Mayor Allan D. Cameron, vice-president; W. D. Perry, treasurer; Harry Chapman, assistant secretary; Dr. A. J. Brown, president; William Martyn, vice-president; William H. Hoflich, decorations; and Henry C. Facey, secretary.

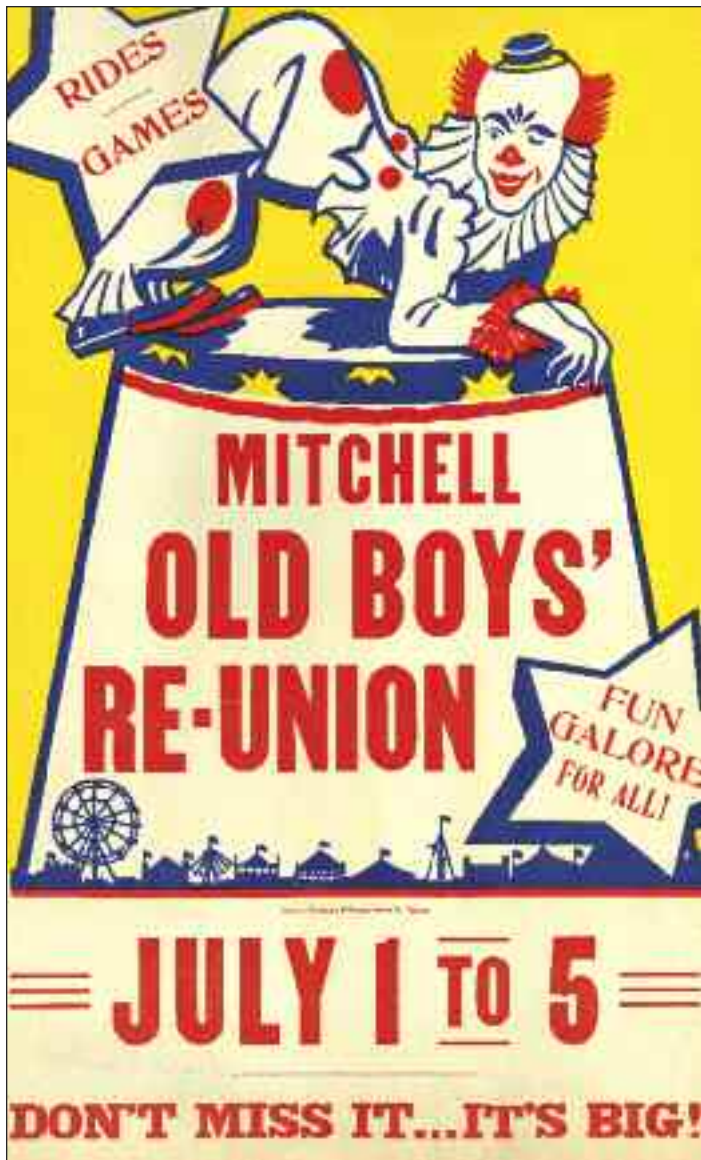

Note: One copy is framed.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4516 The organizing committee for the Mitchell old boys reunion in July 1950. Standing, from left: William Bennett, A. W. (Bud) Blowes [vice-president], A. Hickey, Norman J. Schafer, George Ronnenberg, John J. Vosper, Wilfrid C. (Dick) Thorne, Alvin Jordan, Edgar W. Fawm, Edwin J. (Pat) Hingst and Emanuel (Manny) Walther. Sitting, from left: Mayor Harold A. Cook [vice-president], F. Adair Campbell [president], Ethel (Mrs. Amos) Thiel, Lloyd Hawes and William H. Hoflich.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4517 A four-colour (red, blue, white and yellow) advertising poster (measuring about 22 inches by 14 inches) for the Mitchell's old boys reunion, July 1-5 in 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4518 A four-colour (red, blue, white and yellow) advertising poster (measuring about 18 inches by 12 inches) for the Mitchell's old boys reunion, July 1-5 in 1950. This is a poster created by the Royal Canadian Air Force for its training command band. It was made Mitchell specific with the addition of a three-inch-wide black and white band that says "Mitchell Old Boys July 1st to July 5 1950."

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4519 Tuesday, July 4, was designated “South of the Border or American Day,” when Mitchell held its old boys reunion in July 1950. For many years there was a strong connection between Mitchell and Windsor-Detroit. It was employment possibilities, mostly, that drew many young people to the car plants and distilleries of those border cities. So strong were the ties, that the expatriates donated $500 to the reunion fund and staged their own parade on the specially designated day. These are some of the Windsor-Detroit reunion attendees. Standing from left: Hans Walgenbach, Harry Coppin, Bert Davis, Jack Marsden, Jack Hall, Ray Wickham, Charlie Colquhoun, Jack Linton, William Stenke, Bruce Ross, Gus Krossa, Vernon Keith, Les Paulen, Rena (Kraemer) Walgenbach, Florence (Davis) Krossa and Hilda (Cooper) Davis. Seated from left: Olive (Brooks) Schearer, Jean Buck, Winnie (McHenry) Coppin, Descima Colquhoun, Rhea (Myers) Sumner, Dessie (Daniels) Marsden, Audrey (Ett) Keith, Edna King, Bessie (Barley) Paulen, Gwen (Daniels) Colquhoun, Mary (Cooper) Linton, Jewel (Norris) MacEwen, Grace Wickham, Mrs. Jack Hall, Winnie (MacDougall) Ross and Beatrice Stenke.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4520 Tuesday, July 4, was designated “South of the Border or American Day,” when Mitchell held its old boys reunion in July 1950. For many years there was a strong connection between Mitchell and Windsor-Detroit. It was employment possibilities, mostly, that drew many young people to the car plants and distilleries of those border cities. So strong were the ties, that the expatriates donated $500 to the reunion fund and staged their own parade on the specially designated day. These are some of the Windsor-Detroit female reunion attendees. Standing, from left: Dessie (Daniels) Marsden, Winnie (McHenry) Coppin, Jean Buck, Olive (Brooks) Schearer, Jewel (Norris) MacEwen, Grace Wickham, Bessie (Barley) Paulen, Winnie (MacDougall) Ross, Gwen (Daniels) Colquhoun, Rhea (Myers) Sumner, Rena (Kraemer) Walgenbach and Beatrice Stenke. Sitting, from left: Hilda (Cooper) Davis, Descima Colquhoun, Audrey (Etty) Keith, Edna King, Gwen (Daniels) Colquhoun, Mrs. Jack Hall and Florence (Davis) Krossa.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4521 The choir assembled by Trinity Anglican Church for the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion in July 1950. The minister at Trinity in 1950 was Rev. M. A. Hunt. Those identified in the back row are Jack Paris (left end) and Alvin Jordan (fourth from right). At the right end of the front row is Lucy (Mrs. Walter) Bennett.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4522 The choir assembled by Trinity Anglican Church for the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion in July 1950. The minister at Trinity in 1950 was Rev. M. A. Hunt. Those identified in the back row are Jack Paris (left end) and Alvin Jordan (fourth from right). At the right end of the front row is Lucy (Mrs. Walter) Bennett.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4523 A gathering of players and fans at the old-timers baseball game at Keterson Park on Monday, July 3, part of the Mitchell old boys and old girls reunion. In a three-inning game, the Mitchell team that won the Huron-Perth league championship in 1928 battled their 1950 counterparts to a 2-2 tie. Front row, from left: Russ Robertson, Allen Dow, Gordon Dow, ????, Irwin R. (Nay) Pearce, Gordon Mounteer?, Jack (Tiny) Brown, Roy Reed?, Arthur W. (Bud) Blowes and ????. Second row, from left: ????, ????, ????, ????, ????, ????, Lottie Pearce, Nettie Porterfield, Doreen Ratz, ??? and Judy Pridham. Third row, from left: ????, ????, ????, ????, ????, Irene Heckman, Ethel Thiel, Florence (Jackson) Thompson, William Gilbert (Will) Thompson, Phyllis Barbour, ???, Beth Vosper, ???, Evelyn Pridham, Ormond Pridham and Dave Eizerman. Fourth row, from left: ???, Margaret Pridham, ???, ???, ???, ???, ???, Patsy Thorne, Marilyn Ingram, ???, Donna Vosper, ???, ??? and ????. Top row, from left: ???, ???, Greta Harmer, Velma Thiel, Eva Gettler, Ruby Butson, Jack Butson, Douglas Butson, Albert Morey and Laura Morey?.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4524 Members of the Mitchell team that won the Huron-Perth baseball league title in 1928 (or 1929?). They reassembled on July 3, 1950, to play an exhibition game against their 1950 counterparts, as part of the Mitchell old boys reunion. The three-inning game ended 2-2. Kneeling, from left: A. W. (Bud) Blowes, batboy Jackie Coppin and Roy Reed. Sitting, from left: Bill Elliott, Irwin R. (Nay) Pearce, Charlie Brooks, Les Gatenby, Wilfred Soeder, Herman Heckman, Jack (Tiny) Brown and Crabby Reeves. Standing, from left: Dave Hanson, Jack Hanson, Norm Bradford, Bill Coppin, Doc Cruikshank, Roy Harmer, ???, Herb Clarke, Goldwyn (Duke, Goldie) McClocklin, Fred I. Pearce and Hazel (Reeves) Flood.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4525 From July 1 through July 5, 1950, Mitchell hosted an old boys (and old girls) reunion. Here, members of the organizing committee, wearing their Canadian military field service-style reunion hats, pose for a publicity photo. Beginning from the left, with those in the car: George Ronnenberg, Frank Campbell (at the steering wheel), John J. Vosper, ????, Alvin Jordan, Wilfrid C. (Dick) Thorne, Ethel (Mrs. Amos) Thiel, A. Hickey (at the steering wheel), A. W. (Bud) Blowes and committee chairman F. Adair Campbell.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4526 Joe French (dark jacket, light hat) of Lot 16, Concession 5, Fullarton Township, drives his three-year-old Clyde-Hackney colts (Jim closest to camera, Tony on the left), while Arnold Gloor rides beside him. The rear passengers are not unidentified. They were in the American Day parade, on Tuesday, July 4, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. Beginning at 1 p.m., the parade went from the downtown bandstand to Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4527 The old boys (and old girls) reunion parade from the downtown bandstand to Keterson Park, beginning at 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Using umbrellas as shade from the sun, a male driver and three female passengers use a horse-drawn wagon to navigate the parade route. Their printed message is the motto of the Women's Institutes of Ontario (now the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4528 At about 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 1, 1950, onlookers gather around the bandstand on the southwest corner of St. Andrew Street and Ontario Road as the children's entries in old boys (and old girls) reunion parade form up and head to Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4529 Majorette Diane King (right) helps to lead the Mitchell band in the old boys (and old girls) reunion parade east on Ontario Road, on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4530 The Mitchell band marches west past the Hicks House on Ontario Road to help kick off Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4531 While the sidewalks are packed with people, the Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets is all but empty in preparation for the Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4532 Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion chairman F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell [centre] helps to organize the kick-off parade just east of the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street, on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4533 People line the streets in the area of the intersection of St. Andrew Street and Ontario Road, and a signpost welcomes those in Mitchell to celebrate the town's old boys (and old girls) reunion, which started on this day (Saturday, July 1, 1950) with a parade from the downtown bandstand to Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4534 The old boys (and old girls) reunion parade from the downtown bandstand and cenotaph (in background) to Keterson Park begins at about 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 1, 1950, featuring traditional and mechanical horsepower.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4535 This photo, looking to the north, was taken on July 1, 1950, from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. In the middle of the intersection is a “Welcome Home” signpost and throngs of people gathered to watch the opening-day parade of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4536 It would seem the negative was reversed in the printing of this photograph. In terms of the Royal Hotel, it is almost a mirror image of Photo 4535. As with 4535, this photo was likely taken on July 1, 1950, from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. In the middle of the intersection is a "Welcome Home" signpost and throngs of people gathered to watch the opening-day parade of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. Flying in front of the camera lens is a Union Jack, the flag of the United Kingdom of Great Britain.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4537 Facing east and dressed in cowboy style, a rider and his horse stand in the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background are the town's bandstand, the post office and the Levy business block.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4538 Dressed in cowboy style, a rider and his horse trot easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4539 A youngster wearing a baseball uniform rides a pony towards Keterson Park in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Behind them are costumed adults in a horse-drawn buggy. All are travelling east on Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. David streets.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4540 Majorette Diane King (right) helps to lead the Mitchell band easterly on Ontario Road for the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. To her left was the Hicks House (not shown in this photograph).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4541 An unidentified majorette parades in late-day light during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, hosted by the town from July 1 to July 5, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4542 Majorette Diane King pauses in the intersection of St. Andrew Street and Ontario Road during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4543 A bandmaster leads his charges east on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4544 A bandmaster leads his charges east on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. David Street during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4545 Members of the Mitchell Girls Guides ride on a float created on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Standing by the truck is Sorensen employee Hugh (Scotty) Gray.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4546 Members of the Mitchell Girls Guides ride on a float created on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4547 Members of the Mitchell Girls Guides ride on a float created on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. This photo was taken as the float travelled east in front of the Main Street United Church manse.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4548 Girls Guides and their leaders ride on a float created on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The leader on the back left corner of the float is Edith Cook.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4549 Costumed firemen spray water on spectators as they and their 1921 Model T truck take part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Bill Thiel is driving the truck, while Bill Bennett, Ed Ruston, and Dick and Pete Leppard are handling the hose.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4550 Costumed firemen spray water on spectators as they and their 1921 Model T truck travel east on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Bill Thiel is driving the truck, while Bill Bennett, Ed Ruston, and Dick and Pete Leppard are handling the hose.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4551 Costumed firemen and their 1921 Model T truck spray water on spectators as they travel west on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. George Street during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Bill Thiel is driving the truck, while Bill Bennett, Ed Ruston, and Dick and Pete Leppard are handling the hose. The nameplate on the bus behind the firemen reads “Grand Bend.”

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4552 The Mitchell Lions Club float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The Lions took the opportunity to say thank you for the support they got in building the town's first municipal swimming pool. Adults and children on the float dressed in bathing suits, and their props included a tub of water, a swing set and a life preserver ring from the pool.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4553 The Mitchell Lions Club float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The Lions took the opportunity to say thank you for the support they got in building the town's first municipal swimming pool. Adults and children on the float dressed in bathing suits, and their props included a tub of water, a swing set and a life preserver ring from the pool. In this photo the float is travelling east on Ontario Road, nearing the intersection of St. Andrew Street. To its right is Bud Fisher's restaurant.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4554 The Mitchell Lions Club float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The Lions took the opportunity to say thank you for the support they got in building the town's first municipal swimming pool. Adults and children on the float dressed in bathing suits, and their props included a tub of water, a swing set and a life preserver ring from the pool. In this photo the float is travelling east on Ontario Road, nearing the intersection of St. Andrew Street. The boy wearing the cowboy hat and vest near the centre of the float is Richard Lehnen.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4555 An unidentified male driver in a decorated car (possibly a 1948 Pontiac Silver Streak) on the race track at Keterson Park following the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4556 An unidentified female driver in a car (possibly a Pontiac) pulling a boat-like float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. They are travelling west on Ontario Road just past the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4557 Cars, costumes and clowns make their way to Keterson Park during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4558 Travelling east on Ontario Road through the intersection of St. Andrew Street, youngsters ride on the hood and front fenders of a car (possibly a Chevrolet) in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4559 Frank Campbell drives one of the family's cars in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Signage suggests he was also accepting donations to the town's campaign for a new arena.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4560 Frank Campbell drives one of the family's cars in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Signage suggests he was also accepting donations to the town's campaign for a new arena. In this photo he and his "fresh-air taxi" were travelling east on Ontario Road into the intersection with St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4561 Travelling east on Ontario Road approaching the intersection of St. Andrew Street, youngsters ride on the hood and front fenders of a car (possibly a 1948 Pontiac Silver Streak) in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Behind them is the Mitchell Lions Club float.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4562 Bob Edmunds, Don Robinson, Art Barley and Orval Kahle built this vehicle to look like it was running backwards, and they called it the "Insanity Special." In this photo they are travelling easterly on Ontario Road towards St. Andrew Street in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4563 Bob Edmunds, Don Robinson, Art Barley and Orval Kahle built this vehicle to look like it was running backwards, and they called it the "Insanity Special." In this photo, they and their car are on the racetrack at Keterson Park after appearing in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4564 Four-legged horsepower and horse-less carriages on their way to Keterson Park in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4565 Bespectacled, crock-toting Carl Schellenberger rides shotgun in this horse-drawn rig, that bears the sign, "Do you remember me?" They were taking part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4566 A donkey-drawn wagon in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4567 Peter (Campbell) the clown entertains some children as they walk west down Ontario Road towards St. George Street in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4568 Peter (Campbell) the clown entertains some children in front of Schinbein's Bakery, 26 Ontario Rd. during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4569 The Mitchell Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float as it moves easterly towards the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Onboard are Aileen Soeder (standing), Yvonne Baillie, Patricia Hingst, Beverley McDougall, Audrey Jordan, Mariette Bleakney and Marguerite Hurn.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4570 A tractor pulls a history-theme float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background are the town's post office and downtown bandstand, and the Levy business block.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4571 Aileen Soeder (standing, right) and members of the Mitchell Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) on their float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Sitting on this side of the float are Audrey Jordan, Mariette Bleakney and Marguerite Hurn. On the other side are Yvonne Baillie, Patricia Hingst and Beverley McDougall.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4572 Aileen Soeder (standing) and members of the Mitchell Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) on their float at Keterson Park after the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Sitting, from left: Yvonne Baillie, Patricia Hingst and Beverley McDougall. On the other side of the float are Audrey Jordan, Mariette Bleakney and Marguerite Hurn.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4573 Aileen Soeder (standing) and members of the Mitchell Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) on their float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background is the town's post office, whose clock reads 2:43. Sitting, from left: Yvonne Baillie, Patricia Hingst and Beverley McDougall. On the other side of the float are Audrey Jordan, Mariette Bleakney and Marguerite Hurn.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4574 Old and newer cars travelling west on Ontario Road just west of St. Andrew Street in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4575 Cars and a bus and a wagon make their way on Ontario Road during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The imposing building in the background (left) is the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4576 Decorated cars travel east on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street during a Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade in July 1950. The first of these cars carries Mitchellites who came home for the reunion from the Detroit area, thus the banner on the car: “Old Bags from Detroit.” There were a few parades during the reunion, including one on Tuesday, July 4, which was designated South of the Border or American Day. The retailers in the background are, from left: King Salton’s drug store, Herman and George Doerr’s appliance store, C. J. Larkworthy’s jewellery store and King Robinson’s poolroom.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4577 Mayor Harold Cook drives a vintage car and transports some dignitaries in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4578 A vintage car, some horses, a wagon and some bicycles make their way east along Ontario Road, towards the St. Andrew Street intersection, in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The car is in front of the Hicks House (to the right, out of the photograph).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4579 A vintage car, bearing the sign “Detroit – city of champs” moves along the racetrack at Kettering Park after taking part in a Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade in July 1950. There were a few parades during the reunion, including one on Tuesday, July 4, which was designated South of the Border or American Day. The newer car following is a Cadillac. The building in the background is the Crystal Palace.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4580 Pat Salisbury (left) and the town's well-known milkman, Norm Walt, used pure horsepower in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. This photo was taken on the racetrack at Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4581 Dressed as pipe-smoking stagecoach drivers, two men direct their white horse and white rig east on Ontario Road toward the St. Andrew Street intersection in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Behind them are Pat Salisbury and Norm Walt with their horsepower.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4582 Chairman of the 1950 Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion committee F. Adair [Baldy] Campbell (third from left) is joined on the platform by other dignitaries, members of the town band, and assorted onlookers as the July 1 parade comes to an end on the racetrack at Keterson Park. On the track in front of the platform is a horse-drawn wagon carrying four passengers and bearing the motto of the Women's Institutes of Ontario (now the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4583 Dressed as pipe-smoking stagecoach drivers, two men direct their white horse and white rig east along the racetrack at Keterson Park after completing the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Instructions on the front of the judges stand read "Register P.U.C. office."

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4584 Chairman of the 1950 Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion committee F. Adair [Baldy] Campbell (standing third from right) is joined on the platform by other dignitaries, and assorted onlookers as the July 1 parade comes to an end on the racetrack at Keterson Park. On the track in front of the platform is a horse-drawn buggy with four costumed passengers.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4585 Toronto resident Lila Cole, a native of the Russeldale area, was back in Mitchell for the town's old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Here she sits in a well-decorated buggy near the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street before the start of the parade.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4586 The town milkman Norm Walt (right) has the reins and Pat Salisbury rides shotgun as they and their passengers pose during their participation in the American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4587 A horse-drawn buggy with four costumed passengers, as they take part in the American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4588 With live hood ornaments, a car heads toward Keterson Park during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4589 The J. I. Torrance (plumbing heating and sheet metal) truck and its rooftop passengers travel easterly on Ontario Road through the St. Andrew Street intersection during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4590 With flowers in abundance, a float prepared by the Mitchell Nursery and Floral Co. travels easterly on Ontario Road toward the St. Andrew Street intersection during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. On the float are people who appear to be in wedding attire.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4591 Decorated cars move in a northeasterly direction on the racetrack at Keterson Park after parading from downtown during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background is the Crystal Palace.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4592 John (Jack) Osier pilots the Mitchell Motors entry in the old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. His co-pilot in the front seat is Alex Baker. Riding shotgun in the rear are, from left: Jack Davidson (of the family that owned the Hicks House), John Sproule and Mac McKellar.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4593 Aboard one of Jack Sorensen's egg and feed store trucks, a 1950 Vanguard is hauled along the racetrack at Keterson Park in the old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. At the time, the Vanguard dealership in Mitchell was Litt's Service Station St. George Street (Highway 23 North).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4594 Musicians play for square dancers on a float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4595 Square dancers take a break on their float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4596 This float, in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950, features a man reading a book to some costumed children. The driver's door of the truck on which the float was created could bear the word "Dublin." In this photo the float is travelling east on Ontario Road and about to enter the St. Andrew Street intersection. Behind it is the downtown bandstand.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4597 This float, in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950, features a man reading a book to some costumed children. In this photo the float is on the racetrack at Keterson Park. Behind it is the judges stand on the east side of the track. The man standing by the float, possibly its driver, is unidentified.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4598 This float, in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950, features a man (perhaps a minister) reading a book to some costumed children. In this photo the float is travelling north, in front of the grandstand, on the racetrack at Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4599 Three females ride on the hood and fenders of this Chevrolet Master Deluxe, while some children ride inside as the car travels north along the racetrack at Keterson Park after taking part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4600 A 1950 Buick two-door hardtop – with a swan on the roof – moves in a northerly direction along the racetrack at Keterson Park after taking part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background is the Crystal Palace.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4601 Terry Crich (left), wearing a hat and Mary Tomlinson, wearing a headdress, hold a “DUBLIN” sign as the car on which they are riding moves southerly along the racetrack at Keterson Park after taking part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Their ride, entered and driven by Jerry Holland of Dublin, was judged the best decorated car in the parade. Standing beside this entry are members of the Mitchell band, and behind it is a wildly decorated car entered by Fern (Mrs. Howard) Stacey.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4602 This 1950 Studebaker may or may not have taken part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The cars are thought to have been parked along the parade route, which stretched from the downtown bandstand to Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4603 William Gilbert (Will) Thompson pilots his 1950 Cadillac convertible in a southerly direction on the racetrack at Keterson Park after the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. He and his wife Florence (Jackson) drove the car to the reunion from their home in California. On the front bumper are posters promoting the “Trees of Mystery,” located in the redwood forest near Klamath, Calif.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4604 William Gilbert (Will) Thompson sits in his 1950 Cadillac convertible, pointing north on St. George Street at the intersection of Ontario Road, prior to taking part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. He and his wife Florence (Jackson) drove the car to the reunion from their home in California. On the front bumper are posters promoting the “Trees of Mystery,” located in the redwood forest near Klamath, Calif.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4605 This is the two-tiered float built on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks for the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Called "International Friendship," the float features two people on the top level dressed as the Queen and Uncle Sam. On the lower tier is a cluster of costumed people holding flags from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. In this photo the float moves westerly along Quebec Street towards the intersection of St. George Street. The building in the background is the back of Mitchell's town hall, on the northeast corner of that intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4606 The Mitchell Lions Club float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The Lions took the opportunity to say thank you for the support they got in building the town's first municipal swimming pool. Adults and children on the float dressed in bathing suits, and their props included a tub of water, a swing set and a life preserver ring from the pool. In this photo the float is travelling east on Ontario Road, entering the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4607 This is the two-tiered float built on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks for one of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. Called "International Friendship," and bearing the words "Detroit Windsor Mitchell Club," the float features two people on the top level dressed as the Queen and Uncle Sam. On the lower tier is a cluster of costumed people holding flags from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. It could have been a part of the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4. In this photo the float moves westerly along Quebec Street towards the intersection of St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4608 This is the two-tiered float built on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks for one of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. Called "International Friendship," and bearing the words "Detroit Windsor Mitchell Club," the float features two people on the top level dressed as the Queen and Uncle Sam. On the lower tier is a cluster of costumed people holding flags from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. It could have been a part of the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4. In this photo the float moves westerly along Quebec Street towards the intersection of St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4609 The “Queen” and “Uncle Sam” rode atop the two-tiered float built on one of Jack Sorensen’s poultry and feed store trucks for one of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. The banner on their float read “International Friendship – Detroit Windsor Mitchell Club,” which suggests they might have been in the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4610 This two-tiered float was built on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks for one of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. Called "International Friendship," and bearing the words "Detroit Windsor Mitchell Club," the float features two people on the top level dressed as the Queen and Uncle Sam. On the lower tier is a cluster of costumed people holding flags from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. It could have been a part of the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4. In this photo the float moves easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4611 At right, a partial view of the two-tiered float built on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks for one of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. Called "International Friendship," and bearing the words "Detroit Windsor Mitchell Club," the float features two people on the top level dressed as the Queen and Uncle Sam. On the lower tier is a cluster of costumed people holding flags from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. It could have been a part of the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4612 This two-tiered float was built on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks for one of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. Called "International Friendship," and bearing the words "Detroit Windsor Mitchell Club," the float features two people on the top level dressed as the Queen and Uncle Sam. On the lower tier is a cluster of costumed people holding flags from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. It could have been a part of the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4. In this photo the float moves easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4613 The Lions Club float is joined by decorated cars, a boy in a baseball uniform riding a pony and other floats on the racetrack at Keterson Park after taking part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background is the Crystal Palace.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4614 Assorted floats and decorated cars on the racetrack at Keterson Park after they took part in one the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. The two-tiered float in this photo was built on one of Jack Sorensen's poultry and feed store trucks. Called "International Friendship," and bearing the words "Detroit Windsor Mitchell Club," the float features two people on the top level dressed as the Queen and Uncle Sam. On the lower tier is a cluster of costumed people holding flags from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. It could have been a part of the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4615 A proud couple with their horse and buggy on the racetrack at Keterson Park after they took part in one of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parades in July 1950. It could well have been on Monday, July 3, when there was a parade to help celebrate Stratford, County and Rural Day.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4616 Two of the people on a tractor-pulled float in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. A poster on the float suggested its theme was "Mitchell 1900-1950."

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4617 A tractor-pulled float in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. A poster on the float suggested its theme was "Mitchell 1900-1950." In this photo the float travels on Ontario Road in an easterly direction towards the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background are the downtown bandstand and the post office.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4618 Two clowns do what clowns do in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. Here they lead parade entries east on Ontario Road between St. George and St. Andrew streets.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4619 A car with a live hood ornament wearing a top hat, and door poster proclaiming something about “Dry Best Yeast” takes part in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4620 Musicians and a large chicken are featured on the float entered by Pounder Bros. in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. Pounder Bros. was a contracting, lumber, coal and hardware business in Stratford. In this photo the float is travelling westerly on Ontario Road toward the St. George Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4621 Musicians and a large chicken are featured on the float entered by Pounder Bros. in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. Pounder Bros. was a contracting, lumber, coal and hardware business in Stratford. In this photo the float is travelling easterly on Ontario Road toward the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4622 In April 1949, Stan Blowes bought a bookstore and travel agency in Stratford. On Monday, July 3, 1950, as part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion he used his 1947 Chevrolet to pull this one-wheeled float in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade. Standing on the front of the float is the youngest of his three sons, six-year-old Barry (Sam). In this photo, the float is travelling easterly on Ontario Road approaching the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4623 Norm Kemp drives the Heath Fine Furniture float in the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion. Margaret Cornish is the female pioneer. Her male colleague is unidentified. In this photo the float is on the racetrack at Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4624 This photo, looking to the north, was taken on Saturday, July 1, 1950, from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. The downtown block is lined with people and on the road are participants in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade. The big building at the left is the Royal Hotel. Farther down the street is the Hicks House. HOWEVER, the negative was reversed in the printing of this photograph. The two hotels are on the north side of Ontario Road, not the south side, as they appear here.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4625 This photo, looking to the north, was taken on Saturday, July 1, 1950, from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. The downtown block is lined with people and on the road are participants in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade. The big building at the left is the Royal Hotel. Farther down the street is the Hicks House. HOWEVER, the negative was reversed in the printing of this photograph. The two hotels are on the north side of Ontario Road, not the south side, as they appear here.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4626 Two two-wheeled interlopers grab a share of the spotlight in the children's section of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background, spectators line the balcony of the Hicks House, in the centre of the north side of the main business block, between St. Andrew and St. George streets.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4627 Most of the children's entries in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Here they are aligned on Ontario Road along the south side of the main business, between St. George and St. Andrew streets.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4628 While officials confer to the left, the winning children's entries in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950, pose for a photo on the platform beside the racetrack at Keterson Park. From left: Janet Casler, Mitchell; Donald Hunkin, South Porcupine; Bob Parkinson, Mitchell; Paul Lockhart, Mitchell; Barbara Ann Cheoros, Mitchell; Edythe Harris, Munro; Paul Engel, Galt; Nancy Lou McLandress, Mitchell; and Shirley McPherson, Mitchell.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4629 Two youngsters dressed for the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950, pose near a black Pontiac Silver Streak (possibly a 1948 model) at the Keterson Park fairgrounds.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4630 Three youngsters dressed for the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950, pose in front of a black Pontiac Silver Streak (possibly a 1948 model) at the Keterson Park fairgrounds.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4631 Members of one of the bands that was part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion, July 1-5, 1950. In this photo they are marching easterly on Ontario Road in front of the Main Street United Church manse (out of view to their left).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4632 One of the bands that was part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion, July 1-5, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4633 Mitchell band members lead the town's old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In this photo they are marching easterly on Ontario Road, through the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4634 The pipe band of the Perth Regiment (out of Stratford) leads the Stratford, County and Rural Day parade on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion. In this photo the band is marching westerly on Ontario Road and has just passed the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4635 The Lucknow Pipe Band leads the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4, 1950, part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion. In this photo the band is marching in an easterly direction on Ontario Road, approaching the St. David Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4636 One of the bands that was part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion, July 1-5, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4637 One of the bands that was part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion, July 1-5, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4638 One of the bands that was part of Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion, July 1-5, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4639 At left, John (Jack) Osier pilots the Mitchell Motors entry in the old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4640 Costumed firemen spray water on spectators as they and their 1921 Model T truck take part in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Bill Thiel is driving the truck, while Bill Bennett, Ed Ruston, and Dick and Pete Leppard are handling the hose. In this photo they are travelling east on Ontario Road nearing the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4641 Frank Campbell drives one of the family's cars in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Signage suggests he was also accepting donations to the town's campaign for a new arena. In this photo he and his "fresh-air taxi" were travelling east on Ontario Road into the intersection with St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4642 A donkey-drawn wagon in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. Following is a wagon pulled by a single, white horse. Travelling east on Ontario Road, the two rigs are approaching the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4643 The Mitchell Lions Club float in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. The Lions took the opportunity to say thank you for the support they got in building the town's first municipal swimming pool. Adults and children on the float dressed in bathing suits, and their props included a tub of water, a swing set and a life preserver ring from the pool. In this photo the float is travelling east on Ontario Road into the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4644 Children on their decorated tricycles and pushing buggies amuse spectators on Ontario Road in the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background, from left: the town's downtown bandstand, part of the St. Andrew Street business block south of Ontario Road, the cenotaph and the post office.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4645 With flowers in abundance, a float prepared by the Mitchell Nursery and Floral Co. travels easterly on Ontario Road toward the St. Andrew Street intersection during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. On the float are people who appear to be in wedding attire. In the background are the Rogers and Benson hardware building and the downtown bandstand.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4646 People enjoy themselves at Keterson Park during the Mitchell's old boys (and old girls) reunion, July 1-5, 1950. There were several evening events scheduled for the park during the reunion. Silhouetted in the background is the Crystal Palace.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4647 Marching bands perform before a packed grandstand on the racetrack at Ketterson Park on Wednesday, July 5, as part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion in 1950. To the right is the judges stand for the track.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4648 Youngsters race in a southerly direction on the racetrack at Keterson Park during the Stratford, County and Rural Day program on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4649 Alvin Jordan (left) provides the push power for A. W. (Bud) Blowes during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion parade on Saturday, July 1, 1950. In the background is Herb Berry's plumbing shop, at 42 Ontario Rd. Farther east is the town's fire hall.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4650 Encouraged by an adult in a shirt, tie and jacket, youngsters race in a southerly direction on the racetrack at Keterson Park during the Stratford, County and Rural Day program on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4651 Youngsters race in a southerly direction on the racetrack at Keterson Park during the Stratford, County and Rural Day program on Monday, July 3, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4652 Spectators look on as youngsters take part in events on the racetrack at Keterson Park during the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, July 1-5, 1950. This could have been during the Stratford, County and Rural Day program on Monday, July 3, 1950.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4653 Assorted horsepower gathers on the racetrack at Keterson Park after the South of the Border or American Day parade on Tuesday, July 4, 1950, part of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4654 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These are some of the celebrants making their way downtown.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4655 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These paraders are, from left: Minnie Dower, Claris (Mrs. Don) Markle, Don Markle, Greta Harmer (rear, wearing mask) and Bob Philips.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4656 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants, from left: Helen (Mrs. Benny) Grant, Helen Wassmann, Bill Hodgert, Benny Grant, Alice Dietz, Dr. ?? McMaster (from Seaforth) and ????

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4657 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These are some of the celebrants, in front of C. J. Larkworthy's jewellery store and King Robinson's poolroom. Walking arm-in-arm, from left: ????, ????, Greta Harmer and Bob Philips.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4658 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These are some of the celebrants, dancing in front of the Fowler Bros. photography shop. The smiling, hat-less man in the middle of the group is photographer Floyd Wassmann. Behind him, wearing glasses, is Bert Ausman. The three people at the right are Lew Mann, his wife Rhena and Helen Wassmann (left hand on hip).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4659 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants, from the left, are Alice Dietz, Dr. ?? McMaster (from Seaforth), ????, Harold Fisher, ????, and Louise (Mrs. Harold) Fisher.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4660 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These are six celebrants in the downtown area. The man in the suit is A. W. (Bud) Blowes.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4661 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These are some of the celebrants in the downtown area.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4662 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These are four of the celebrants in the downtown area.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4663 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are in front of the Hicks House, whose tenants at the time included Al Jervis's Superior Food Market.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4664 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These leggy celebrants are in the downtown area.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4665 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are in front of Dave’s Grill at 48 Ontario Rd. To the right of the grill is the town’s fire hall.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4666 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are in the downtown area.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4667 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These five celebrants are in the downtown area.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4668 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are in front of Hord and Diegel's decorating and furniture store on the north side of Ontario Road just west of the Royal Hotel. The two people in the striped pyjamas at the right are Fred Pearce and his wife Maude.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4669 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are posing in front of the Hicks House on the north side of Ontario Road. From the left: 15-year-old Peter Campbell (with his leg bent), Shirley Campbell, Bill Hodgert, Alice Dietz with her arm around Gary Mann, Dr. ?? McMaster (from Seaforth), ???, ???/ ???, Rhena (Mrs. Lew) Mann and Lew Mann.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4670 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. This gathering in front of the Fowler Bros. and Wassmann photography store and Henry Teutsch’s shoe repair shop include, from left: Rhena Mann, Shirley Campbell, Lew Mann, Gary Mann, Peter Campbell and Jean Campbell. The Fowler brothers, Ken and Ted, were Rhena’s brothers.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4671 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. On the right is Alvin Jordan.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4672 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are in the downtown area, in front of Al Jervis's Superior Food Market.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4673 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are in the downtown area.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4674 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. Chauffeured by Don Graham, reunion chairman F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell gives the crowd a play-by-play account of the pyjama proceedings.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4675 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. The man with his hands held high is Alvin Jordan.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4676 On the last night of the Mitchell old boys (and old girls) reunion, which ran July 1-5, 1950, there was a pyjama (shirt-tail) parade that began in the Crystal Palace area after a dance and made its way to the downtown area – Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. These celebrants are in the downtown area.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4701 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This is the poster that outlined the program.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4702 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking westward, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. At the top left are spectators watching from the roof. Others are perched on roofs on the north side of Ontario Road.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4703 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (2) (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking westward, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. At the top left, and on roofs on the north side of Ontario Road, are those getting a look from aloft.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4704 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A well-dressed young male and his female passengers use goat power to take part in the parade. To the left is a uniformed man, probably a police officer.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4705 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A well-dressed young male and his female passengers use goat power to take part in the parade. Behind the youngsters is a veteran in uniform.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4706 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Royal Canadian Legion float travels westward in front of George Cole's feed store, approaching the Canadian Bank of Commerce building and St. Andrew Street. The float was built on and powered by a truck from the Hesky Flax company.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4707 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (2) (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This truck was photographed travelling east in front of the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4708 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float, travels west in front of the Royal Hotel, just west of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4709 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Travelling west and photographed just east of St. Andrew Street, this Royal Canadian Legion float was built on and powered by a truck from the Hesky Flax company.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4710 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Travelling east are the firemen and their 1921 Model T truck. Driving the truck eastward past the Campbell Hardware building and William Rodgers' barbershop is Wes Pugh. Ed Ruston is holding the umbrella. William Bennett is first from the left among those standing on the truck, and department chief Walter Bennett is leaning on the truck near the rear left wheel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

- 4711 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (2) (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Morley Clemo is standing in front of the Royal Canadian Legion float.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4712 (2) On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). In this photo, Albert Silk is with two young black girls who happened to be visiting Mitchell at the time of the parade. In the buggy is a black doll.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4713 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This is a bird's-eye view of the Pepsi-Cola bottling plant truck.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4714 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A decorated car makes the turn at the west end of the main business block and heads east.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4715 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Pepsi-Cola bottling plant truck approaches the intersection of St. Andrew Street from the east.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4716 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A decorated truck travels east past the Royal Hotel. Its sign reads, "Thanks Boys for a Job Well Done."

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4717 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This is the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float, traveling east in front of the Hicks House, just west of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4718 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This is the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float en route to Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4719 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The float to the left was entered by the Royal Hotel. At right are the firemen and their 1921 Model T truck. All are travelling west on Ontario Road, approaching the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4720 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This skirmish, friendly or otherwise, may have taken place at Keterson Park. As well, it may have been part of a race or other sporting event.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4721 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A decorated truck travels west past the Canadian Bank of Commerce building. The truck's sign reads, "Thanks Boys for a Job Well Done."

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4722 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Foreground: two decorated bikes and a wagon, all travelling eastward. Background: the Royal Canadian Legion float travelling west in front of the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4723 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Albert Silk helps to align the decorated bikes, wagons and buggies, all just west of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4724 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Decorated cars and the Royal Canadian Legion float travel westward in front of Edgar W. Fawm's Imperial gas station and garage and the manse of Main Street United Church.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4725 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A decorated truck travels east past the Royal Hotel. Its sign reads, "Thanks Boys for a Job Well Done."

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4726 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This is a view of the rear of the Royal Canadian Legion float as it travels east towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4727 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This is the horse-drawn Royal Hotel float going through the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4728 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Royal Canadian Legion float travels east in front of the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4729 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Royal Canadian Legion float travels west towards the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4730 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Albert Silk marshals the bikes, buggies and wagons as they and their youthful drivers make their way south on St. Andrew Street. In the background is Mitchell Public School.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4731 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Marguerite Hurn walks beside the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float as it travels east past the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4732 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float travels east past the Hawes hardware store. Standing is Louise Fisher. Sitting next to her is Mary Hingst.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4733 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Foreground from the left: Morley Clemo, Norm McNairn and Ed Ruston.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4734 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Decorated vehicles proceed westerly as they approach the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4735 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float as it travels east past the Canadian Bank of Commerce building. From the left: Edith Cook, Olive King, Louise Fisher (standing) and Ina Moses.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4736 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Albert Silk (at right, back to the camera) marshals the bikes, buggies and wagons as they and their youthful drivers line up on St. Andrew Street in front of the Mitchell Public School grounds.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4737 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Veterans sit with others on the curb to watch the parade pass in front of the Hicks House. From the left are: ????, ?? O'Donnell, ????, Franklin M. (Si) Cameron, ????, Herb Homuth and ????

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4738 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Town police officers Charles Leonhardt (left) and Bert Croome stand in the centre of the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4739 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking north, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4740 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking north upon the intersection with St. Andrew Street, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. At the centre of the crowd of people are band members and majorettes.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4741 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Majorettes and acrobats pass in front of the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4742 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Majorettes and acrobats pass in front of Clarence Prueter's dry goods and grocery store near the northeast corner of the intersection of Ontario Road and St. George Street. East of the Prueter store is the Heath furniture store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4743 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Thirteen-year-old Frank Campbell pulls his “bomb” float, with its sign, “This gave Japan atomic ache.”

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4744 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). With the Royal Hotel in the background, young parade participants with their bicycles and wagons join 13-year-old Frank Campbell with his “bomb” float and its sign, “This gave Japan atomic ache.”

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4745 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Majorettes, band members and costumed adults mix with spectators at the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4746 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). With four helpers, including Shirley Campbell and Joyce Kells, 10-year-old Peter Campbell pulls his farm wagon towards Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4747 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Albert Silk (at right) helps to organize the younger of the parade participants, as they form up in the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4748 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A Mitchell police officer, either Charles Leonhardt or Bert Croome (at right), stands in the middle of the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street as youngsters align themselves and their bicycles and buggy.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4749 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Costumed adults and a young bicycle rider precede majorettes and the band in their march to Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4750 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). In this photo, the horse-drawn Royal Hotel float rolls north on Wellington Street towards Keterson Park.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4751 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Here, parents walk beside their children, parading south on St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Royal Canadian Legion hall.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4752 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Children walk and ride their bicycles and tricycles westward in front of the north side of the town's main business block. The building at the left is the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4753 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). There is a suggestion that Olive (Mrs. Ted) King is in the rabbit costume, but she is also said to be riding on the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float in the same parade.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4754 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). With Wes Pugh at the wheel, Mitchell firemen and their 1921 Model T truck travel west past the Royal Hotel. Riding on this side of the truck is department chief Walter Bennett. Firemen on the truck include Ed Ruston and Bill Bennett.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4755 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). With Wes Pugh at the wheel, Mitchell firemen and their 1921 Model T truck travel east. Firemen on the truck include Ed Ruston and Bill Bennett. The building at the right is the west end of the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4756 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Patricia Hingst talks to her mother Mary (left), who is on the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float. To the right is a truck from the Pepsi-Cola bottling plant.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4757 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Chief Walter Bennett stands on the side of one of the town's fire trucks as it nears the intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street, travelling eastward.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4758 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Mitchell firemen and their 1921 Model T truck travel east past the Hicks House. Driving the truck is Wes Pugh. Firemen on the truck include Ed Ruston and Bill Bennett.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4759 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). There is a suggestion that Olive (Mrs. Ted) King is in the rabbit costume, but she is also said to be riding on the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float in the same parade. In any event, in this photo the rabbit is posing on St. Andrew Street near Mitchell Public School while a costumed ??? Scott looks on.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4760 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). With Wes Pugh at the wheel, Mitchell firemen and their 1921 Model T truck travel west toward the intersection of Ontario Road and St. George Street. Firemen on the truck include Ed Ruston and Bill Bennett. The building to the right is the Mitchell 5¢ to $1.00 Store, operated by Fred Mohr.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4761 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Spectators line Ontario Road near the intersection of St. Andrew Street. The building at the left is the Royal Hotel, which from 1933 to 1964 was owned by the Mitchell Public Utilities Commission, and housed the PUC offices. To the right is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building. Behind it, to the north, is Fred Porterfield's monument works.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4762 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking to the northwest, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. The narrow line of entries in this part of the parade comprised mostly children with their buggies, bicycles, tricycles and pets.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4763 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking to the east, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. A band and its majorettes march west toward the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4764 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Some children march westward on Ontario Road in front of Boyd's furniture and funeral business and the Thorne shoe store. Spectators watch from the roof of the Hord building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4765 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). With Wes Pugh at the wheel, Mitchell firemen and their 1921 Model T truck travel east toward through the intersection of Ontario Road and St. George Street. Firemen on the truck include Ed Ruston and Bill Bennett. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4766 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Costumed marchers precede the band along the parade route, possibly Wellington Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4767 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Morley Clemo (left) and Norm McNairn wheel their doll in the parade.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4768 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). With Wes Pugh at the wheel, Mitchell firemen and their 1921 Model T truck pose on the south side of the business block, not far from the town fire hall. Firemen on the truck include Ed Ruston and Bill Bennett. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4769 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The T. S. Ford Co. float travels west in front of Boyd's furniture and funeral business. Spectators watch from the roof of the Hord building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4770 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A decorated car with a message: “Your Promise to Us – No More War.”

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4771 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Costumed marchers lead the band and majorettes east on Ontario Road. The dark building in the background is the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4772 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Horses pull the Royal Hotel float west on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4773 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The driver and two passengers are aboard the float entered by “Ye Old Royal Hotel.”

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4774 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Albert Silk (at right) helps to shepherd children's entries westward through the St. Andrew Street intersection, in front of the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4775 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Royal Hotel float makes its way eastward towards the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4776 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Royal Canadian Legion float heads west towards the St. Andrew Street intersection

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4777 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Pepsi-Cola bottling plant float moves westward past the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4778 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The T. S. Ford Co. float heads west, in front of the Edighoffer department store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4779 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Decorated vehicles moved westward along the north side of the business block and then eastward along the south side of the block.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4780 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking east, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. On the north side of Ontario Road are Edgar Fawm's Imperial Oil gas station, the manse for Main Street United Church and Main Street United Church.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4781 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This is the T. S. Ford Co. float, with the Royal Hotel in the background.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4782 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Marguerite Hurn (back to camera) walks by the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float as it travels east toward the St. Andrew Street intersection. On her side of the float, from left: Edith Cook, Olive King, Louise Fisher (standing) and Ina Moses.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4783 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). In this photo, the T. S. Ford float heads west through the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4784 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). An easterly stream of children heads into the St. Andrew Street intersection. Helping to direct them is Joe Cox (in hat, light-coloured shirt and suspenders). Beyond the third bicycle is 13-year-old Frank Campbell pulling his “bomb” float with the message “This gave Japan atomic ache.”

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4785 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Marguerite Hurn (back to camera) walks by the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float as it travels east toward the St. Andrew Street intersection. The three people sitting on her side of the float are, from left: Edith Cook, Olive King and Ina Moses. Standing is Louise Fisher.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4786 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A trio of celebrants, all dressed up for the parade.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4787 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Norm McNairn (left) and Morley Clemo push their doll and doll buggy west along the north side of the business block. Behind them is a band marching in the opposite direction, in front of the Burgess photography shop.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4788 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Ten-year-old Peter Campbell poses with his “farm” wagon. His “rural” colleagues include Shirley Campbell (standing left) and Joyce Kells (standing centre).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4789 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Children with their bikes and buggies parade westward after going through the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4790 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Norma McNairn (left) and Morley Clemo push their doll and doll buggy eastward along the south side of the business block, towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4791 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Two black children who happened to be visiting Mitchell at the time of V-J Day took part in the parade with their doll and buggy. Behind them to the right is Albert Silk.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4792 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The youngest of the parade participants make the turn at the west end of the business block and reverse their direction from west to east. In the background is Clarence Prueter's dry goods and grocery store near the northeast corner of the intersection of Ontario Road and St. George Street. East of the Prueter store is the Heath furniture store. The man in the suit with his back to the camera is Albert Silk, who was helping marshal the youngsters.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4793 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The youngest of the parade participants walk, ride or pedal eastward through the St. Andrew Street intersection. The dominant building on the left is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4794 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking west, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street. In the foreground is the downtown bandstand. To its left is the outside edge of the cenotaph.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4795 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The youngest of the parade participants make the turn at the west end of the business block and reverse their direction from west to east. In the background is Clarence Prueter's dry goods and grocery store and the Cosy Grill restaurant, near the intersection of Ontario Road and St. George Street. The man in the suit close to the Prueter store is Albert Silk, who was helping marshal the youngsters. The man at the right is unidentified.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4796 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Having made the turn at the west end of the business block, two baton twirlers head east while the majorettes and band behind are still marching to the west.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4797 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). This photo, looking west, was likely taken from atop the Campbell Hardware building on the southeast corner of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4798 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Parade participants, including majorettes and a band march westward toward the intersection of St. George Street. In the background are the Mitchell 5¢ to $1.00 Store and Jack Sorensen's Perth Produce retail outlet.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4799 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Young participants follow the band eastward on Ontario Road, towards Edgar W. Fawn's Imperial gas station and garage and the manse of Main Street United Church, on the north side of the street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4800 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Costumed adults and majorettes precede the band eastward towards the St. Andrew Street intersection, amid some celebratory smoke.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4801 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). A newer car and an older car, both decorated, roll westward past the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4802 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The Pepsi-Cola bottling plant truck/float carries a collection of celebrants eastward through the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4803 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). There is a suggestion that Olive (Mrs. Ted) King is in the rabbit costume, but she is also said to be riding on the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (IODE) float in the same parade. In any event, in this photo the rabbit is posing at the east end of the south side of the main business block with ??? Scott and three other costumed marchers.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4804 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Two decorated pickup trucks move westerly towards the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the lighter-coloured building behind them is George Cole's feed store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4805 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). The T. S. Ford Co. float moves easterly past the town's fire hall, which at the time was in the centre of the south side of the main business block.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4806 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Heading easterly, the younger participants in the parade approach the Hicks House (just out of the photo to the right). Behind them is the west half of the north side of the main business block, stretching to St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4807 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). In this photo, Joe Cox stands in the middle of main street, perhaps because he was a parade marshal or just for a closer view. In the background is the Royal Hotel, which at the time was owned by the Mitchell Public Utilities Commission, and housed the PUC offices and Bill Cox's Royal Men's Shop. On the corner to the right is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4808 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). Parade participants, including majorettes and a band march westward toward the intersection of St. George Street. On the other side of them are the Hicks House, the Superior food store, and Neil Witmer's barbershop.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4809 On Aug. 15, 1945, a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 gathered in Mitchell for what came to be called V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day), the end of the Second World War. For many, the highlight of the day was a parade on main street (Ontario Road). An unidentified man helps to shepherd the younger parade participants west, past the Mitchell 5¢ to $1.00 Store and Jack Sorensen's Perth Produce retail outlet.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4820 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, the equestrian portion of Saturday's parade moves westerly on Ontario Road between St. Andrew and St. George streets. The first three riders are, from the left, Johanne Walther, her sister Barbara, and Susan Edighoffer.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4821 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On the Saturday, Mitchell's Liz Fletcher and Wayne Kelly perform in front of the Edighoffer store during the celebrations. Watching them from close range, pipe in hand, is Hugh Edighoffer.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4822 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. For their centennial sidewalk sales on Aug. 5, merchants dressed in costumes from the late 1800s and displayed items from that era. In the foreground, bonneted Jean (Sawyer) Gantenbein talks shop with Olive Elliott, while Vera Buck, Edith Fisher and Elizabeth Keillor scout out the rack of clothes in the background.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4823 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. These three were an entry in the children's division of the Saturday parade.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4824 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, majorettes lead one of those parades easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4825 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo the Royal Canadian Legion float travels easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4826 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. Travelling east on Ontario Road, toward the St. Andrew Street intersection, is the horse and buggy entry of Bill French of Lot 16, Concession 5, Fullarton Township, in the Aug. 7 parade. The name of the roan mare is Flicka. Bill's passenger on this day is thought to have been Betty Ann Ballantyne.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4827 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo a clown and kids have some fun on Ontario Road in front of the Thorne shoe store and Diegel's Department Store, just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4828 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo a young teamster drives his pony and cart easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4829 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the horse and buggy entry of the Mitchell Junior Farmers on Aug. 7. The mare, named Star, and the decorated buggy belonged to Bob French of Lot 16, Concession 5, Fullarton Township. His passenger is Beth Mulholland, president of the Mitchell Junior Farmers.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4830 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo the Heath Furniture float moves easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street. Dressed for the occasion are Tom Heath and Erma (Seigner) Waller, both of whom worked in the store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4831 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On this float are five costumed, drinking and smoking card players.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4832 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On this float, travelling easterly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. Andrew Street, the "biggest problem" at Expo '67 appears to be the lineup for the women's washrooms.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4833 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On this tractor-pulled float, travelling westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street, are three adults and two children re-creating their version of times past. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4834 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On this float, travelling westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street, are members of the Brodhagen ladies aid. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building. From left Verna Scholdice (standing), ????, Freda Hinz (at spinning wheel), Velma Preuter (with envelope in hand), ????, and Edith Bauer (wearing white suit).

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4835 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On this tractor-pulled float, travelling westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street, are costumed men, women and children with tools of the past, among them a butter churn and spinning wheel. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4836 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A vintage car travels westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4837 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A vintage car travels westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background are the Canadian Bank of Commerce building and a tractor pulling a float in the opposite direction.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4838 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. Alex Baker talks to a clown while driving a vintage car westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background are Diegel's Department Store and the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4839 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On this float, travelling westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street, are members of Job's Daughters (Bethel 4). In the background is Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4840 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. Fred Phillips (driving), Leonard Smith (co-pilot) and Jack Fowler on the Mitchell Fire Department's 1928 Lorne engine travel westerly on Ontario Road, just west of the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background are Thorne's shoe store and Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4841 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, a number of parade entrants walk west on Ontario Road, west of St. Andrew Street, pushing their baby buggies and pulling wagons. In the background are Thorne's shoe store and Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4842 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, Ross Baker (foreground) and Bob Bissonnette ride high on their home-made bikes in a westerly direction on Ontario Road, just west of the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background are Thorne's shoe store and Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4843 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this damaged photograph, an unidentified, costumed man poses near the Ontario Road corner of the Levy building. Behind him are a woman and two children. Also in the background are the town's post office and the smaller building containing public washrooms.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4844 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photograph, an unidentified, costumed woman poses with a female youngster just east of the Levy building near the cenotaph and intersection of Ontario Road and St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4845 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In the photo a vintage automobile heads west on Ontario Road, just east of the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4846 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, from left: Linda (Mogk) Reis, Barbara Wituschek and Dorothy Ratz stand in front of the Walther Pharmacy at 40 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4847 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, from left: Linda (Mogk) Reis, Barbara Wituschek and Dorothy Ratz stand in front of the Walther Pharmacy at 40 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4848 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, Linda (Mogk) Reis stands in the apartment doorway beside the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4849 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, Marjorie Cook (left) and Audrey Bradshaw stand in front of their place of employment, the Walther Pharmacy at 40 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4850 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, Marjorie Cook (left) and Audrey Bradshaw stand in front of their place of employment, the Walther Pharmacy at 40 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4851 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, Marjorie Cook stands on the sidewalk in front of her place of employment, the Walther Pharmacy at 40 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4852 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell sits on his penny farthing in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd. With him are Campbell employees, from left: Linda (Mogk) Reis, Dorothy Ratz and Doris Dietz.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4853 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell sits on his penny farthing in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4854 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell sits on his penny farthing in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd. With him are Campbell employees Linda (Mogk) Reis (left) and Dorothy Ratz.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4855 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell poses with Campbell insurance (38 Ontario Rd.) employees, from left, Linda (Mogk) Reis, Barbara Wituschek and Dorothy Ratz in front of the Walther Pharmacy at 40 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4856 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, from left, Dorothy Ratz, Marjorie Cook and Linda (Mogk) Reis pose in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd. with F. A. Adair Campbell's penny farthing.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4857 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, Doris Dietz and F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell pose in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd. with the latter's penny farthing. Doris worked in the Campbell insurance office.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4858 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, Ida (Mrs. Fred) Ahrens and Pearl (Mrs. Lorne) Walter pose in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd. with F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell's penny farthing.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4859 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, Linda (Mogk) Reis (left) and two youngsters are photographed in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd. with F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell's penny farthing. Linda worked in the Campbell insurance office.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4860 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, from left, Alma Docking, Doris (Docking) Dietz, Dale Leonhardt and Linda (Mogk) Reis pose in front of the Walther Pharmacy at 40 Ontario Rd.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4861 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, John D. Wilson, 5, and his sister Joylynn, almost three years old, pose in front of the Campbell insurance office at 38 Ontario Rd. with F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell's penny farthing. They were the children of Wayne and June Wilson.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4862 On Aug. 13, 1967, Gena Race [1895-1981], left, and Marjorie (Mrs. F. Adair) Campbell [1905-1997] pose with F. Adair (Baldy) Campbell's penny farthing at the Campbell residence, 119 Toronto St., Mitchell.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4863 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 7, 1967, Leonard Smith sits on F. A. (Baldy) Campbell's penny farthing at the Campbell residence, 119 Toronto St.. The Smiths lived across the street from the Campbells.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4864 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is part of the parade that unfolded in a westerly direction on Ontario Road on Aug. 5. Horses, wagons, buggies and bikes move toward St. George Street. At left is the Hicks House.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4865 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is part of the parade that unfolded in a westerly direction on Ontario Road past the Hicks House on Aug. 5. The first two riders are, from the left, Barbara Walther and Susan Edighoffer.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4866 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is part of the parade that unfolded in a westerly direction on Ontario Road on Aug. 5. Horses and their riders walk past the Hicks House and Superior food market towards St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4867 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 7, this float, entered by the "Vivians," moves westerly on Ontario Road in front of the Royal Hotel. It features four women and assorted pioneer items, among them a spinning wheel, rocking chair and wicker baby basket. The Vivians are possibly members of the family that lived on Lot 2, Concession 3 in Logan Township.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4868 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. On Aug. 5, this is the tail end of the kids' part of the parade, as it moved westerly on Ontario Road through the intersection of St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4869 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. These people gathered on the south side of Ontario Road between St. George and St. Andrew streets to watch the parade on Aug. 5.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4870 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A vintage car moves westerly on Ontario Road after passing through the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4871 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. With a team jacket hanging over a rear window, a vintage car moves westerly on Ontario Road after passing through the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4872 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. The Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce float moves westerly on Ontario Road after passing through the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Royal Hotel and the Diegel Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4873 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, a chuckwagon belonging to Lorne and Linda (Mogk) Reis of Milverton moves westerly down Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4874 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is a partial look at one of the horses and riders taking part in the Aug. 5 parade, as they move westerly on Ontario Road towards St. George Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4875 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, a tractor-pulled float travels easterly on Ontario Road toward the St. Andrew Street intersection. The decorated float features a gas pump, a rack of oil cans, tires and people sitting around a table. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4876 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. With this parade entry, the matter of salvation was brought to the fore by, from left, Margaret Daynard, Rev. A. H. [Bert] Daynard, Rev. Doug Sloan (mostly hidden), Alice Sloan, Rev. Orlo Miller and Maridon Miller.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4877 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the float entered by automotive garage owner Dennis Aicken as it moves westerly on Ontario Road after passing through the intersection of St. Andrew Street. The woman aboard is unidentified.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4878 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the float entered by the Dungey lumber mill as it moves westerly on Ontario Road after passing through the intersection of St. Andrew Street.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4879 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A mini float powers its way easterly on Ontario Road towards the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4880 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. The Mitchell Fire Department's 1928 Lorne engine travels westerly on Ontario Road towards the intersection of St. George Street. In the background are the Toronto-Dominion Bank building and the Heath furniture store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4881 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo a horse and ride make their way westerly on Ontario Road, just west of the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4882 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This float, bearing firemen from Monkton, moves westerly on Ontario Road, just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4883 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This horse-drawn float, driven by Andy Park and bearing a replica of the Crystal Palace, moves westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4884 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the Vivian family float moving westerly on Ontario Road just west of the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building. The Vivians are possibly members of the family that lived on Lot 2, Concession 3 in Logan Township.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4885 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This parade entry comprises two men dressed as women, a pony and a small cart. Here it is moving westerly on Ontario Road just west of the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4886 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, Len Robinson and Ken Brown drive their horse-drawn binder westerly on Ontario Road after leaving the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background is the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4887 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, the Brodhagen Chamber of Commerce float moves easterly on Ontario Road towards the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4888 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. In this photo, the Toonerville Trolley, packed with children and flying Canadian flags, moves easterly on Ontario Road towards the St. Andrew Street intersection.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4889 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A vintage car moves easterly on Ontario Road towards the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4890 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. The colour party for a band moves easterly on Ontario Road towards the St. Andrew Street intersection. In the background is Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4891 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the float entered by automotive garage owner Dennis Aicken as it moves easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background are the Royal Hotel (left) and the Canadian Bank of Commerce building. The woman aboard is unidentified.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4892 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the float entered by Louis Morello and his manufacturing company as it moves easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4893 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is a float entered by Russel McCallum as it moves easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. Onboard is a Ski-Doo snowmobile, for which he was a dealer. In the background are the Royal Hotel and Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4894 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. Russel McCallum drives a steam engine easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background are the Royal Hotel and Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4895 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is a well-populated and well-decorated float announcing, "We're back home from Cranbrook" (Grey Township in Huron County). Here it is on Ontario Road in front of the Royal Hotel and Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4896 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A topless vintage car travels easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background are the Royal Hotel and Diegel's Department Store.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4897 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A vintage car travels easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background is the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4898 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. A float prepared by the Mitchell Figure Skating Club is pulled by tractor easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background are Diegel's Department Store and the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4899 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This float, entered by the Perth County Federation of Agriculture, is pulled by horses easterly on Ontario Road and into the intersection of St. Andrew Street. In the background are Diegel's Department Store and the Royal Hotel.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4900 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This photo (damaged) is of Bill Binning and his vintage car in the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4901 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. Young baton twirlers take part in the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4902 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce float in the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4903 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the horse and buggy entry of Bill French of Lot 16, Concession 5, Fullarton Township, in the Aug. 7 parade. The name of the roan mare is Flicka. Bill's passenger on this day is thought to have been Betty Ann Ballantyne.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4904 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the horse and buggy entry of the Mitchell Junior Farmers on Aug. 7. The mare, named Star, and the decorated buggy belonged to Bob French of Lot 16, Concession 5, Fullarton Township. His passenger is Beth Mulholland, president of the Mitchell Junior Farmers.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4905 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce float in the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4906 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the Royal Canadian Legion float in the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4907 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. These are children and their calf-pulled wagon in the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4908 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the float entered by Louis Morello and his manufacturing company in the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4909 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the chuckwagon float belonging to Lorne and Linda (Mogk) Reis of Milverton after the parade on Aug. 7. Lorne and Linda are left and second from left.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4910 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. This is the chuckwagon float belonging to Lorne and Linda (Mogk) Reis of Milverton after the parade on Aug. 7. Lorne and Linda are left and second from left.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4911 On the weekend of Aug. 5-7, 1967, Mitchell celebrated Canada's Centennial. Organizers held a parade on Saturday, Aug. 5, and another, larger parade on Monday, Aug. 7. Lorne and Linda (Mogk) Reis of Milverton stand in front of their chuckwagon float after the parade on Aug. 7.

Stratford-Perth Archives, Campbell Family Photograph Collection

4912 From June 29 through July 4, 1974, the town of Mitchell celebrated its 100th birthday. This is the crest that was designed and used for that celebration.