ANNA MAE'S BAKERY & RESTAURANT

Serving Tradition

In the village of Millbank, Anna Mae's Bakery and Restaurant has been a beloved destination for homemade Mennonite cooking since 1991. What began as a simple pie stand at the end of Anna Mae Wagler's driveway in 1978 has evolved into a full-service restaurant and bakery, drawing visitors from across Ontario and beyond.

When Marlene and the late Mel Herrfort took over the business in 2001, they expanded it while preserving its warm, family-run essence. Today, under the leadership of Amanda Herrfort and Sheila Bauman, Anna Mae's offers a menu that celebrates tradition, with their famous Broasted Chicken and made-from-scratch pies taking center stage. They bake over 75,000 pies annually, a testament to their enduring popularity. The restaurant's commitment to quality and community shines through in every dish, from the carefully sourced local ingredients to the personal touches that make every guest feel at home.

The addition of a spacious dining area and a bustling gift shop filled with local goods has only enhanced Anna Mae's reputation as a must-visit spot in southwestern Ontario. The restaurant's fame even caught the attention of the Food Network's You Gotta Eat Here! in 2014, cementing its status as a culinary gem known for authentic flavors and warm hospitality.

Anna Mae's isn't just a place to eat—it's a gathering spot where memories are made and traditions are honored, a true testament to the enduring spirit of family and community. Their legacy continues to grow, with generations of guests returning time and again for the comforting taste of home.
